STOUT LOSES ANOTHER HEARTBREAKER TO WHITWORTH

SPOKANE, Wash (September 22, 2007) - For the second season in a row, Whitworth University scored on the final play of regulation, but this time the Pirates got the win over UW-Stout on the play, a 23-21 decision Saturday.

It looked like Stout had a good chance to win the contest when Dan Lytle (Jr, Darien) caught a 15 yard pass from Kyle Provos (So, Brooklyn Park, Minn) with just over a minute left to play. But, just like last year when Whitworth scored a touchdown with three seconds remaining in regulation to send the game into overtime and the Pirates went on to win, Whitworth scored with no time left on the clock. Jay Tully, the same player to score the game-tying touchdown last year, hauled in a one-yard pass as time went off the clock.

Stout (1-2) controlled the first half of the game, taking a 14-3 halftime lead. The Blue Devils scored on their first possession of the game. On second and 6 of the first drive, quarterback Tanner Kattre (Sr, Abbotsford) hit Shawn Korth (Sr, Marshall) for a 62-yard pass play down to the Whitworth eight. Three plays later, Kattre scored from the one yard line. Whitworth (2-1) added a field goal early in the second quarter, but the Kattre to Korth connection worked again to set up Stout's second score. Korth took a 22 yard pass play to the Whitworth two yard line and Ron Fricke (So, Monticello, Minn) scored on the next play for a 14-3 lead. Whitworth took over the momentum in the second half, scoring on their first series on a 26-yard pass play from Kory Kemp to Andy Largent. The extra point was blocked by Stephen Schils (Sr, Green Bay) and Stout led, 14-9. Whitworth took the lead, 17-14, on their next series when Adam Anderson rambled 66 yards for a score with 6:04 left on the third quarter clock.

Korth had a hand in setting up Stout's go-ahead touchdown, snagging a 19-yard Provos pass on fourth down to the Whitworth 17 and two plays later, Provos hit Lytle, who dragged his toes to stay inbounds of the back of the end zone with 1:11 left to play. On Whitworth's winning drive, Kemp completed six-of-10 passes for 55 yards, culminating with the one-yard pass to Tully.

Whitworth gained 378 yards to Stout's 275. Kemp was 19-for-30 for 219 yards. Steve Silva had eight receptions for 119 yards. The Pirates gained 159 yards rushing, with Anderson tallying 114, 66 of those yards coming on his touchdown run. Stout had 163 yards passing, 112 rushing. Kattre was 5-for-11 for 105 yards, while Provos was 5-for-9 for 58 yards. Both were intercepted once. Korth finished with four receptions for 113 yards. Fricke had a career day running the ball, gaining 113 yards on 28 totes.

Stout returns to Don & Nona Williams Stadium, Saturday, Sept. 29 when they host UW-Platteville in the annual Hall of Fame game.

LACK OF SOLID HITTING, BLOCKING SPELLS LOSS

MENOMONIE (September 21, 2007) - UW-Stout had a negative hitting percentage in two games and could muster only a hitting percentage of .053 in the third game as the Blue Devils were swept by UW-Stevens Point, 30-25, 30-25, 30-15, in the conference opener for both teams. Neither team hit particularly well, but the Pointers (11-5, 1-0) proved to be more opportunistic, especially on the defensive side of the net. The Pointers had two solo blocks and 20 assisted blocks to none recorded for Stout (8-5, 0-1). The Pointers got 13 kills from Beth Richter and 12 from Shelly Maus. Maus and Richter each recorded four block assists and Maus had a solo block. Pam Nora had six block assists and Leah Dutkiewicz added four. Kendra Pagel (Jr, Wausau) managed seven kills to lead Stout.

Stout will be at UW-Superior, Wednesday, Sept. 26 and will be at the UW-Platteville Invitational, Sept. 28-29.

DUBUQUE SCORES THREE LATE GOALS TO BEAT STOUT

DUBUQUE, Iowa (September 23, 2007) - UW-Stout could not hold off the University of Dubuque, which scored three goals in the final nine minutes of the game, as the Blue Devils fell to Dubuque, 3-2, Sunday, in Dubuque, Iowa. Stout got off to an early first-half lead when Kelsey Keimig (Jr, White Bear Lake, Minn) was assisted by Michelle Lizotte (Sr, Racine) for the score. The Blue Devils (2-7-0) added another goal in the second half on a penalty kick by Lizotte. The 2-0 lead held until there was only nine minutes left in the game. Then Caitlin Tero of Dubuque (7-0-2) took over the game. She went on a scoring rampage, scoring three goals in the final nine minutes of the game. Brittney Lund and Sarah Shelander each put forth two assists towards Tero's goals. Stout's Michelle Hahn (Fr, Hartford) put three shots on goal, as did Lizotte, who also ended with a goal and an assist. Goalkeeper Jessica Halverson (Jr, Delano, Minn) ended the game with six saves.

The Blue Devils will try to end their three-game skid when they travel to UW-La Crosse on Saturday, Sept. 29.

UW-OSHKOSH SQUEAKS PAST BLUE DEVILS

MENOMONIE - (September 22, 2007) - UW-Oshkosh's Torri Hoffman dribbled through a big lane of traffic and scored the only goal of the game in the 72nd minute as the Titans defeated UW-Stout, 1-0, Saturday at Nelson Field. The loss marked the second consecutive 1-0 loss for the Blue Devils and their third consecutive 1-0 contest. But Stout looked a lot sharper than they did in their previous outing. The Blue Devils (2-6-0, 1-1-0 WIAC) attacked early as Holli Swisher (Fr, Benton Harbor, Mich) and Kelsey Keimig (Jr, White Bear Lake, Minn) created opportunities in the first six minutes of the contest. The game settled down into a hard-hitting, defensive battle. Stout's Jessica Halverson (Jr, Delano, Minn) recorded seven saves, while the Titans' (2-6-0, 1-1-0) Laura Neve also recorded seven saves.

BLUE DEVILS SHUT OUT BY ST. CATHERINE

MENOMONIE - (September 19, 2007) - Seven UW-Stout players combined to get 11 shots off, but none of them found the net as they fell to the St. Catherine Wildcats 1-0, Wednesday at Nelson Field. Katie Zernikel (So, Hartford), Kelsey Keimig (Jr, White Bear Lake, Minn.), Amanda Melendez (Jr, Woodbury, Minn), and Jessica Price (Fr, Woodbury, Minn) each attempted two shots. Michelle Hahn (Fr, Hartford), Laura Howard (Jr, Hudson), and Katie Ness (Fr, River Falls) each shot one. Stout put none of their shots on goal. Goalkeeper Jessica Halverson (Jr, Delano, Minn.) ended the game with six saves. The Wildcats' lone goal came in the 81st minute when Sam Kreibich was assisted by Jamie Lowinske for the score. Gina Thorwick and Kelsey Nistler each added two shots on goal for St. Catherine.

MICHELLE HOHL WINS FALL INVITE CONSOLATION TITLE

She defeated Kendra Miulec of UW-Whitewater, 8-4, Nikki Peach of St. Catherine, 8-2, Devin Daughtery of Carleton, 8-0, Brittany Gerring of UW-Whitewater, 8-4, and in the finals, defeated Molly Stapleton of Lake Forest, 8-3. Hohl also partnered with Kiersten Johnson (So, Andover, Minn) to finish runner-up in the consolation championships of double play in the tournament. The pair defeated Maggie Hendrickson/Rachel Pottenger of Concordia, 8-2, and Molly Stapleton/Iona O'Donnell of Lake Forest, 8-3, before falling in the championship match to a hybrid team of Stephanie Feld from UW-Whitewater and Kristina Kelly of Gustavus Adolphus, 8-6. Czech lost in the second round to Hannah Jensen from Coe College, 6-0, 7-5. Allie Hinman (Fr, Lino Lakes, Minn) lost her first round match to ninth seeded Frances Leung of Carleton College, 6-3, 6-1. Kiersten Johnson (So, Andover, Minn) and Michelle Hohl (Sr, Portage) participated in the Gustavus Fall Invite, held in conjunction with the ITA meet. Both dropped first round matches, Johnson to Abby Citrin of Macalester, 7-6 (7-6), 4-6, 10-6, and Hohl to Amy Christenson of Luther College, 7-5, 6-3. Stout (4-1, 1-1 WIAC) opened the match by dropping two of three doubles matches, then fell behind quickly after No. 1 singles concluded in a flash. Jodie Czech (Jr, Foley, Minn), playing with a back injury, won her No. 2 singles match, 6-2, 6-3, but Stout lost at No. 6 singles to trail 4-2. The numbers 3, 4, and 5 singles matches all went to three sets and numbers 3 and 4 each had tiebreakers in them. Kiersten Johnson (So, Andover, Minn) dropped her first set at No. 3, 7-6, with a 7-6 tiebreaker, but came back to cruise with a 6-1, 6-2 ending. Michelle Hohl (Sr, Portage) at No. 5 dropped her first match, 6-2, but rebounded for a 6-3, 6-4 final set win. That left Natalie Hahn (Sr, Mound, Minn) in a tense set with Mindy Rudiger at No. 4. Hahn won the first set, 7-6 on a 7-6 tiebreaker, but Rudiger came back for a 6-3 second set win. The third set nearly went to another tiebreaker before Hahn captured a 7-5 win to give Stout the conference win over the Falcons (5-3, 0-2).

SIX TO BE INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME ON SATURDAY

Six will be inducted into the UW-Stout Athletic Hall of Fame when the annual induction ceremony is held, Saturday, Sept. 29, in the Grand View Terrace of the Memorial Student Center.

Mike Kundinger, a track standout, Bob Bostwick, a football coach and teacher of the year, football standouts Mike Wilson and Jack Voigt, and women's basketball leader Lisa Schultz will be inducted in the class of 2007. Greg Osterhaus, a baseball standout, will be inducted as a member of the class of 2006. A late family emergency kept Osterhaus from attending last year's ceremony. Larry Kuester will receive the Athletic Distinguished Service Award.

Tickets for the induction ceremony and brunch are $13 and can be obtained by calling the UW-Stout athletic office at 715-232-2224. The inductees will also be recognized at halftime of the Stout/UW-Platteville football game. Kickoff is scheduled for 1 p.m. at Don & Nona Williams Stadium.

Greg Osterhaus

A four year, first team all-conference catcher, Greg Osterhaus capped off his career by breaking the Stout career home run record, a mark that has only recently been matched. Working behind the plate from 1992-95, Osterhaus slammed out 30 career home runs and hit 12 in 1994. Baseball coach Terry Petrie called Osterhaus - a two-time team captain - a great leader, great power hitter and excellent defensive catcher. Osterhaus appears in the top 10 of six Stout career lists - home runs (1st tie, 30), runs batted in (2nd, 123), slugging percentage (6th, .660), hits (7th tie, 156), runs (9th, 100) and batting average (9th, .371). Osterhaus, a 1995 NCAA Division III Midwest All-Region selection, had a balanced career. As a freshman, he batted .410 and as a junior, carried a slugging percentage of .761. A native of Prairie du Chien and prior to coming to Stout, Osterhaus played two years of international fastpitch softball. He is currently employed in the construction field in the Twin Cities area.

Mike Kundinger

Mike Kundinger not only holds the UW-Stout high jump records, but upon his induction date, he still holds the conference records for both the indoor and outdoor championships. The year 1993 was Kundinger's year to shine, and Kundinger rose to the occasion in front of a home crowd as Stout hosted the outdoor meet where Kundinger soared to a height of 7-feet, 2.5-inches, electrifying the entire crowd. Kundinger went on to place second at the NCAA Division III Championships in the high jump later that month. During the indoor season, Kundinger won the conference championships at Platteville with a jump of 7-0.50 and placed third at the NCAA championships. In 1992, Kundinger qualified to the indoor and outdoor national championships, earning All-America honors at the indoors. Kundinger also was a member of the Blue Devil basketball team, where he was the team captain, team MVP and honorable mention all-conference during the 1991-92 season.

Bob Bostwick

When Stout alumni football players from the late 1950s to early 1960s get together and talk about their college football coach, they don't talk about the wins and losses - they talk about the experiences. And heading up that experience was Bob Bostwick, who coached the Blue Devil football program from 1958-63. Bostwick came to Stout from Ft. Dodge, Iowa, High School, and started to turn a program that was hurting around. Although Bostwick's Stout teams never earned a conference champion, Bostwick laid some groundwork in the Blue Devil program. Words like "team" and "visionary" were used to describe Bostwick, by his former players. Bostwick, who was named the 1962 Stout Outstanding Teacher of the Year, recruited or coached several athletes who are already in Stout's Hall of Fame, including Glenn Harke, Duane Ramberg, Dick Baker, Dick Frederickson, Pat Kroll, Gay Herbert and John Zuerlein. Several of Bostwick's players went on to provide a solid base for Stout's 1965 conference championship team. Bostwick left Stout to pursue a career in sales in Iowa, but returned to education after three years and became a teacher, principal and superintendent before retiring in 1992.

Jack Voigt

Jack Voigt held the football program's record for career interceptions for more than 25 years, recording 15 picks in his career from 1972-75 before Eric Moe broke the record in 2002. Voigt, a two-time all-conference honorable mention defensive back, was well decorated by his team. Voigt, a native of Kiel, Wis., was the Stout freshman athlete of the year in 1972, the same year he was the football team's rookie of the year. He received the team's best tackler award during his sophomore and junior years, and was the team's most valuable player as a senior. In addition to football, Voigt was a four year letterwinner on the Blue Devil track team and competed with Hall of Fame members Barney Klecker, Dennis Fechhelm and Jules Butcher.

Mike Wilson

Mike Wilson excelled not only on the football field and the track, but in the classroom and as an active part of the Stout community. Extremely active in the Stout Student Association (SSA) and a football team captain, Wilson was a football All-American and an all-WSUC selection in 1990, then followed that up in the spring by winning the conference 55-meter dash and earning All-American honors in the indoor 55-meter dash and the outdoor 200-meter dash. Wilson held the school's single season record for kickoff return (26.6 y/ret), until the record was broken in 2006. Wilson received the Chancellor's Award upon graduation and was also honored with several awards from the Minority Student Union. Following short football stints with the NFL's Cleveland Browns and CFL's Toronto Argonauts, Wilson put his hospitality and tourism degree to work with a variety of companies. Wilson has worked with the NFL's Players Association as a contract adviser and is also active with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes in the Atlanta area.

Lisa (Schultz) Dormady

Lisa Schultz was the first player that UW-Stout women's basketball coach Mark Thomas' recruited after he was hired to turn around a last place program. Thomas went straight to the dorms in pursuit of Schultz following a tip from her high school coach. Thomas' trip through the dorms paid off as Schultz was one of the pace setters for what has turned into one of the top Division III women's basketball programs. Throughout Schultz's career, the Blue Devils each year upped their record until Schultz's final season in 1991 when Stout advanced to the NAIA Tournament for the first time. Along the way, Schultz earned all-conference honorable mention recognition. Thomas called Schultz "a very intense competitor" who "always expected the best from herself and her teammates." Schultz finished her career with 858 points and 671 rebounds. Married to former Blue Devil baseball standout Mike Dormady, the couple resides in Texas with their four children.

Larry Kuester - Athletic Distinguished Service Award

For Larry Kuester, coming to work as a groundskeeper at UW-Stout every day for the past 30 years was a joy. For the UW-Stout coaching staff, it was a blessing. More than anyone in particular, Kuester was the person who groomed and cared for the UW-Stout athletic outdoor facilities. Kuester was selected to receive the UW-Stout Athletic Distinguished Service Award. Kuester, a 1966 Menomonie High School graduate, began working at Stout in the housing area in 1977, but moved to grounds in 1981. Before long, Kuester was the one looking out for the fields. "I always liked to take care of the playing fields," Kuester said. "We would do whatever it took to make the fields as playable as possible. We wanted the players to have as good an experience as possible." Kuester retired from Stout June 1, but was recently recognized by a number of the Blue Devil teams for his accomplishments. A member of the Menomonie High School baseball team that advanced to the 1965 state tournament, Kuester was also a volunteer Blue Devil baseball assistant coach for about 15 years during his 30 years at Stout. Growing up on a Menomonie area farm, Kuester saw that as a big reason for his care of the land. "My dad always said, if you are going to do something, do it right," Kuester said. A local 4-H leader for more than 20 years, Kuester still raises Charlais cattle with his brother, Duane. Kuester is married to Vickie Kuester, who works with UW-Stout international students, and is the father of two adult children, Staci and Kyle.
