FOCUS 2010
Themes

Learning Community
- Maintain applied learning value and incorporate ethic and civic values
- Examine and clarify roles of the faculty and academic staff
- Modify the calendar
- Create flexible delivery systems
- Develop expectations of and for students

Academic Programs
- Develop outcome-based programs and alternate credit experiences with measurable performance indicators
- Strengthen program advisory committees
- Increase programs consistent with Stout’s mission
- Convert graduate programs to customized instruction
- Increase number of undergraduate customized instruction programs

Stout Technology Advantage
- All services available on-line
- New public relations and marketing effort
- Use technology as a change agent

Restructure for Efficiency and Effectiveness
- Create a school within a school
- Explore a private/public hybrid model
- Migrate to a flatter, horizontal integration with program clustering
- Grow the number of customized instruction programs
- Statewide polytechnic