1920–1989

Jean Danieli Melchert ’45, Seymour, was hon-ored March 25 for 45 years of service to the Seymour Board of Education. A member of the denominational Nenemec BS ’62, MS ’63 will serve as founding dean for the newly established College of Business and Economics. U.W.-Eau Claire Professor Angela Johnson ’63, Chippewa Falls, has retired after serving as Chippewa County deputy trea-surer for 27 years. Director of Greenheck Fan Corp., Schofield, Barbara Henschel Baehr ’66 has retired from teaching in Livonia, Mich., and has moved to Pinchursh, N.C.

Gale Tappe ’66 is a manufacturing engineer with John Deere’s Construction and Forestry Divi-sion, Dubuque, Iowa. Robert Fuller ’67 has retired from U.W.-Eau Claire. Richard Hoehlman BS ’67, MS ’75 has retired after 34 years of teaching at Parker High School, Janesville. Carolyn Bergwasser Wisenbus ’67 BS ’63, MS ’63, 1970–1979

Karen Williams Poll ’70, Rochester, N.Y., is active in community theatre groups and is on the board of directors of the Jewish Community Center of Rochester.

Henry Pawlus ’71, Coal Valley, Ill., was recently elected president of the Illinois Skills USA chapter at the Black Hawk Community College. Vivian Hamme
c冈 ’69, Chippewa Falls, is a member of the College of Law and was sworn into the state bar of Minnesota. She is currently a law clerk for the Honorable Robert Schumacher at the Minnesota Court of Appeals.

Karen Gissing ’74, Bloomington, Minn., is manager of marketing/facilities management at NorthWestern Regional Center, Cumberland, Wis.

Karen Williams Millard ’74, Fullerton, Calif., was nominated for the 1989 Governor’s Volunteer Award by the Golden West High School. Miller joined the California State University Maritime Institute in 1979 to serve as the director of the Maritime Institute of Santa Barbara. She later served as the director of the Institute of Oceanography and Environmental Studies at the University of California, Santa Barbara.

LaVerne Knotel Anderson ’76 has retired after 21 years of teaching in the Byrnesville School District. Donald Hagemann ’76 is director of real estate and construction at Medtronic Inc., Minneapolis. Joseph Hegge ’76 BS ’76, MS ’86 has received the Distinguished Alumni Award from Blackhawk Technical College, Janesville. He is currently president-elect at Chippewa Valley Technical College. Donald Hagemann ’76, Chippewa Falls, is a senior member of the U.S. Department of Energy.

Karen Williams Poll ’70, Rochester, N.Y., is active in community theatre groups and is on the board of directors of the Jewish Community Center of Rochester.

Henry Pawlus ’71, Coal Valley, Ill., was recently elected president of the Illinois Skills USA chapter at the Black Hawk Community College. Vivian Hamme
c冈 ’69, Chippewa Falls, is a member of the College of Law and was sworn into the state bar of Minnesota. She is currently a law clerk for the Honorable Robert Schumacher at the Minnesota Court of Appeals.

Karen Gissing ’74, Bloomington, Minn., is manager of marketing/facilities management at NorthWestern Regional Center, Cumberland, Wis.

Karen Williams Millard ’74, Fullerton, Calif., was nominated for the 1989 Governor’s Volunteer Award by the Golden West High School. Miller joined the California State University Maritime Institute in 1979 to serve as the director of the Maritime Institute of Santa Barbara. She later served as the director of the Institute of Oceanography and Environmental Studies at the University of California, Santa Barbara.

LaVerne Knotel Anderson ’76 has retired after 21 years of teaching in the Byrnesville School District. Donald Hagemann ’76 is director of real estate and construction at Medtronic Inc., Minneapolis. Joseph Hegge ’76 BS ’76, MS ’86 has received the Distinguished Alumni Award from Blackhawk Technical College, Janesville. He is currently president-elect at Chippewa Valley Technical College. Donald Hagemann ’76, Chippewa Falls, is a senior member of the U.S. Department of Energy.

Karen Williams Poll ’70, Rochester, N.Y., is active in community theatre groups and is on the board of directors of the Jewish Community Center of Rochester.

Henry Pawlus ’71, Coal Valley, Ill., was recently elected president of the Illinois Skills USA chapter at the Black Hawk Community College. Vivian Hamme
c冈 ’69, Chippewa Falls, is a member of the College of Law and was sworn into the state bar of Minnesota. She is currently a law clerk for the Honorable Robert Schumacher at the Minnesota Court of Appeals.

Karen Gissing ’74, Bloomington, Minn., is manager of marketing/facilities management at NorthWestern Regional Center, Cumberland, Wis.

Karen Williams Millard ’74, Fullerton, Calif., was nominated for the 1989 Governor’s Volunteer Award by the Golden West High School. Miller joined the California State University Maritime Institute in 1979 to serve as the director of the Maritime Institute of Santa Barbara. She later served as the director of the Institute of Oceanography and Environmental Studies at the University of California, Santa Barbara.

LaVerne Knotel Anderson ’76 has retired after 21 years of teaching in the Byrnesville School District. Donald Hagemann ’76 is director of real estate and construction at Medtronic Inc., Minneapolis. Joseph Hegge ’76 BS ’76, MS ’86 has received the Distinguished Alumni Award from Blackhawk Technical College, Janesville. He is currently president-elect at Chippewa Valley Technical College. Donald Hagemann ’76, Chippewa Falls, is a senior member of the U.S. Department of Energy.

Karen Williams Poll ’70, Rochester, N.Y., is active in community theatre groups and is on the board of directors of the Jewish Community Center of Rochester.

Henry Pawlus ’71, Coal Valley, Ill., was recently elected president of the Illinois Skills USA chapter at the Black Hawk Community College. Vivian Hamme
c冈 ’69, Chippewa Falls, is a member of the College of Law and was sworn into the state bar of Minnesota. She is currently a law clerk for the Honorable Robert Schumacher at the Minnesota Court of Appeals.

Karen Gissing ’74, Bloomington, Minn., is manager of marketing/facilities management at NorthWestern Regional Center, Cumberland, Wis.

Karen Williams Millard ’74, Fullerton, Calif., was nominated for the 1989 Governor’s Volunteer Award by the Golden West High School. Miller joined the California State University Maritime Institute in 1979 to serve as the director of the Maritime Institute of Santa Barbara. She later served as the director of the Institute of Oceanography and Environmental Studies at the University of California, Santa Barbara.

LaVerne Knotel Anderson ’76 has retired after 21 years of teaching in the Byrnesville School District. Donald Hagemann ’76 is director of real estate and construction at Medtronic Inc., Minneapolis. Joseph Hegge ’76 BS ’76, MS ’86 has received the Distinguished Alumni Award from Blackhawk Technical College, Janesville. He is currently president-elect at Chippewa Valley Technical College. Donald Hagemann ’76, Chippewa Falls, is a senior member of the U.S. Department of Energy.

Karen Williams Poll ’70, Rochester, N.Y., is active in community theatre groups and is on the board of directors of the Jewish Community Center of Rochester.

Henry Pawlus ’71, Coal Valley, Ill., was recently elected president of the Illinois Skills USA chapter at the Black Hawk Community College. Vivian Hamme
c冈 ’69, Chippewa Falls, is a member of the College of Law and was sworn into the state bar of Minnesota. She is currently a law clerk for the Honorable Robert Schumacher at the Minnesota Court of Appeals.

Karen Gissing ’74, Bloomington, Minn., is manager of marketing/facilities management at NorthWestern Regional Center, Cumberland, Wis.

Karen Williams Millard ’74, Fullerton, Calif., was nominated for the 1989 Governor’s Volunteer Award by the Golden West High School. Miller joined the California State University Maritime Institute in 1979 to serve as the director of the Maritime Institute of Santa Barbara. She later served as the director of the Institute of Oceanography and Environmental Studies at the University of California, Santa Barbara.

LaVerne Knotel Anderson ’76 has retired after 21 years of teaching in the Byrnesville School District. Donald Hagemann ’76 is director of real estate and construction at Medtronic Inc., Minneapolis. Joseph Hegge ’76 BS ’76, MS ’86 has received the Distinguished Alumni Award from Blackhawk Technical College, Janesville. He is currently president-elect at Chippewa Valley Technical College. Donald Hagemann ’76, Chippewa Falls, is a senior member of the U.S. Department of Energy.

Karen Williams Poll ’70, Rochester, N.Y., is active in community theatre groups and is on the board of directors of the Jewish Community Center of Rochester.

Henry Pawlus ’71, Coal Valley, Ill., was recently elected president of the Illinois Skills USA chapter at the Black Hawk Community College. Vivian Hamme
c冈 ’69, Chippewa Falls, is a member of the College of Law and was sworn into the state bar of Minnesota. She is currently a law clerk for the Honorable Robert Schumacher at the Minnesota Court of Appeals.

Karen Gissing ’74, Bloomington, Minn., is manager of marketing/facilities management at NorthWestern Regional Center, Cumberland, Wis.

Karen Williams Millard ’74, Fullerton, Calif., was nominated for the 1989 Governor’s Volunteer Award by the Golden West High School. Miller joined the California State University Maritime Institute in 1979 to serve as the director of the Maritime Institute of Santa Barbara. She later served as the director of the Institute of Oceanography and Environmental Studies at the University of California, Santa Barbara.

LaVerne Knotel Anderson ’76 has retired after 21 years of teaching in the Byrnesville School District. Donald Hagemann ’76 is director of real estate and construction at Medtronic Inc., Minneapolis. Joseph Hegge ’76 BS ’76, MS ’86 has received the Distinguished Alumni Award from Blackhawk Technical College, Janesville. He is currently president-elect at Chippewa Valley Technical College. Donald Hagemann ’76, Chippewa Falls, is a senior member of the U.S. Department of Energy.
Nesterick
Marriages
ing and promotions manager for WISCO Hotel
Michael is a kindergarten teacher for the Fond du Mankato, Minn. teacher at River Falls High School.
Matthew Nickel, Jan. 12, to David and Jamie "Trish" Anderson, Jr., Wausau, Wis. A daughter, Reanna Nicole, June 6, to David and Jennifer Ahlmer, 20, Menomonee Falls.
Lyders
Deaths
N
Deaths
N
Marriages

Nesterick
Marriages
ing and promotions manager for WISCO Hotel
Michael is a kindergarten teacher for the Fond du
Mankato, Minn. teacher at River Falls High School.
Matthew Nickel, Jan. 12, to David and Jamie "Trish" Anderson, Jr., Wausau, Wis. A daughter, Reanna Nicole, June 6, to David and Jennifer Ahlmer, 20, Menomonee Falls.
Lyders
Deaths
N
Deaths