Ken used his degrees in industrial education as a teacher for 35 years before retiring and volunteering in the community. Stan received his BS degree in industrial education and MS degree in vocational education, and spent 11 years teaching. He is now the owner of Design Specialty Builders. Kathy received her BS degree in home economics education and is co-owner of Design Specialty Builders with Stan. Brian received his BS degree in general business administration and is currently working for Hutchinson Technologies in Eau Claire, Wis. Erik received his BS degree in construction and is now employed in the family business, Design Specialty Builders.

Nielsen Family

Cliff received his BS degree in industrial education and went on to work for the Univar Corporation. Gould National Batteries and spent the years from 1961—1996 farming in Knapp, Wis. Lonna received her BS degree in fashion merchandising and went on to become an insurance supervisor at Park Nicollet Medical Center. She has also been a domestic engineer and worked for Macy’s cosmetic department at the Mall of America. Joel received his BS degree in hotel and restaurant management, and has worked for the Holiday Inn in Bloomington, Minn., as assistant manager; Holiday Inn in Eagan, Minn., as general manager; and is currently at Torgerson Properties in Eagan, Minn., as assistant director of operations. Ryan received his BS degree in industrial technology, and has gone on to work for the JMC company in St. Paul, Minn., as a packaging engineer, Medtronic Inc., in Minneapolis, Minn., as a senior engineer, and is currently a principal engineer with Medtronic. Christine received her BS degree in early childhood education, and has gone on to work for Mercy Child Care in Coon Rapids, Minn., as assistant director; and is now a kindergarten/Title I teacher in Roseville, Minn.

Harmon Family

The Stout tradition goes back many generations for the Harmon family, starting with Charles W., Henry A. and John P. Harmon. The three men played football together in the ’30s at Stout, and all went on to become teachers. Barbara received her BS degree in dietetics in 1965 and is currently working for Stout in the food service area. Charles received his BS degree in industrial technology and is currently with the Rayvac Corporation as an engineering manager; Maria received her BS degree in guidance and counseling and is currently employed as a teacher in the Oregagon School District near Madison; Maria received her BS degree in dietetics in 1986 and MS degree in food science and nutrition in 1988, and is currently with UW-Madison as a faculty associate in the nutritional sciences department; Bill received his BS degree in industrial technology with a packaging concentration in 1996, and currently works for Great Lakes Packaging in Germantown, Wis., as a design engineer.